Counselled on taking both tablets at the same time each day. Member asked about the humming; reassured it passes. Follow up at next refill.

Why this document is NOT sent into the message thread: every line above identifies an individual. It is served only to this conversation, over HTTPS, through a short-lived presigned URL requested by the in-conversation webview, so the bytes never enter the RCS/carrier delivery chain.

HIPAA: this is fictitious sample data. Real Protected Health Information requires HIPAA-compliant handling (an AWS Business Associate Addendum, encryption, audit logging, access controls) that this demo does not provide; compliance is the customer's responsibility.
